News

Thanking the Hills: The owners of Euro lounge Restaurant in Castle Towers were overwhelmed with donations for the Dogs, Cats & Horses (DCH) Animal Adoptions. Owner Peter Dimbrowsky said there was "a ute load" of presents for our four-legged friends. "There were toys, pet food and even flea treatment," he said. "We want to thank everybody who donated." Donations were collected on Christmas eve. Pictured are owners Peter Dimbrowsky and Karlene Brummer.

Positive parenting

The Triple P (Positive Parenting Program) will be offered to Bella Vista families who have children aged three to eight.

The internationally acclaimed program aims to enhance the knowledge, skills and confidence of parents providing practical answers to everyday parenting concerns.

It is based on a system of simple routines and small changes that can make big differences to families.

The Bella Vista Triple P Group will begin on February 21 and run until April 4. Details: Amanda Penel, 8805 7288.

Bus drivers sought

Can you drive a bus and want to volunteer for a not-for-profit community organisation? The Hills Community Aid and Information Service need drivers to take people on outings in their 22-seater community bus. Details: 9639 8620 or email enq@hca.org.au

Mentors needed

Castle Hill RSL Club is now calling for community coaches for the 2011 Max Potential program running March-August 2011.

Last year 18 young adults from six local schools graduated from the youth mentoring program.

Over 22 weeks, coaches develop their skills through intensive training, four personal coaching sessions and by working alongside young adults from local high schools.

There are also a number of limited coach scholarships funded by the club.
