

Band hopes for luck

VANESSA MASSEY

HILLS home grown rock band BLT (Better Luck Tomorrow) will try their luck in this year's YouthRock competition.

The band, made up of Galston High School year 12 students Tommy Henry, Austin Uebel, Luke Neely and Charlie Hill, have made it to the third round of the competition.

The boys started playing together three years ago, jamming in sheds, garages and gigs around the Hills district.

So far they've won the 2006 Tara School Battle of the Bands, performed at the 2007 YouthRock event, won the 2007 ROCKHUM event at Castle Hill RSL and were named the most original band at the 2007 North By North-Fest music festival.

They have also produced and independently released their first three-track demo and were back in the studios last August to record five tracks for the Baulkham Hills Kool Skools program.

BLT is the only band from the Hill district to make it through to YouthRock's final round and they would love to see some local supporters at the gig.

BLT will be playing in the third heat of YouthRock 2008 on Friday at 7pm at the Sutherland Entertainment Centre.

Tickets ($15) are available at the door. Inquiries: www.myspace.com/betterlucktomorrowband

Eurolounge proprietor Peter Dimbrowsky and head chef Alex Hau accept a gold award from Entertainment Book merchant services manager, Daniel Bruntsch.

The Hills' finest

EUROLOUNGE at Castle Hill has just won a gold award for fine dining from readers and users of the Entertainment Book.

Eurolounge won the Gold Award for Best Fine and Contemporary Dining Parramatta, Hills, Blue Mountains and Macarthur region.

Owners Peter and Karlene Dimbrowsky, who only joined the Entertainment Book scheme a year ago, were thrilled with their win.

"We were both shocked and thrilled to win this award," Mr Dimbrowsky said.

"Initially we weren't even aware that we were in the running. Competing with so many other fine restaurants across such a wide territory and then winning is just amazing.

"We are just very grateful to both our fabulous staff and to all the Entertainment Book voters for making this possible for us."

To help celebrate the win, Eurolounge is inviting all Hills Shire Times readers who mention this story a free glass of sparkling wine with either lunch or dinner until the end of April.

For bookings call 8850 7077 or visit the Eurolounge website at www.eurolounge.com.au
